The Constituent Assembly deliberated upon the Indian Constitution, which came into effect on 26 January, 1950. It has the dubious distinction of being the longest in the world. But its length and complexity are perhaps understandable when one considers the country's size and diversity. At Independence, India was not merely large, and diverse, but also deeply divided. A Constitution designed to Keep the country together, and to take it forward, had necessarily to be an elaborate, carefully-worked-out , and painstakingly drafted document.
