Read the following passage and answer the next five questions:

In our quest to increase agricultural production during the last five decades or so, we almost totally neglected the use of compost and completely switched over to chemical fertilizers. The result is that large tracts of productive land have been adversely affected, water bodies including groundwater system have suffered due to chemical contamination and demand for irrigation has been going up year after year. Farmers, in large numbers all over the country, have again started using compost made from organic wastes of different types. In certain parts of the country, cattle are maintained only because they produce dung which is an important fertilizer and soil conditioner.

Earthworms can convert organic matter into compost faster than the normal composting process. This process is now being widely used. Indirectly, the civic authorities are benefitted too as they have to dispose of a reduced quantity of waste.

- 41. How is civic authority getting benefitted due to biocomposting?
- (1) They have to dispose of an increased quantity of waste.
 - (2) They don't have to dispose of any waste.
 - (3) Because civic authority has no role in waste management.
 - (4) They have to dispose of a reduced quantity of waste.
- 42. Choose the correct statement concerned with the passage:

- (1) Earthworms take equal time to convert organic matter into compost with respect to the normal composting process.
- (2) Earthworms take more time to convert organic matter into compost with respect to the normal composting process.
- (3) Earthworm takes less time to convert organic matter into compost with respect to normal composting process.
- (4) Comparison between earthworm based composting and normal composting cannot be made.

43. Water bodies including groundwater system have suffered due to:

- (1) Biocomposting
- (2) Chemical contamination and increased demand for irrigation
- (3) Organic farming
- (4) Increased fertility of land

44. In certain parts of the country, cattle are maintained only because they ____

- (1) Produce milk to increase income of farmers
- (2) Produce dung which is an important fertilizer And soil conditioner
- (3) Work as insect repellants
- (4) Are a symbol of traditional ethics and values

45. What should be the suitable title for the above passage?

- (1) Biocomposting
- (2) Biopest Control
- (3) Traditional Knowledge and Practice
- (4) Uses of Chemical Fertilizers

Read the following passage and answer the next five questions.

India had an independent economy before the advent of British rule Though agriculture was the main source of livelihood for most people, yet, the country's economy was characterised by various kinds of manufacturing activities India was particularly well known for its handcraft industries in the fields of cotton and silk textiles metal and precious stone works etc. These products enjoy a worldwide market based on the reputation of the fine quality of material used and the high standards of craftsmanship seen in all imports from India The economic policies pursued by the colonial government India were concerned more with the protection and promotion of the economic interests of their home country than with the development of the Indian economy Such policies brought about a fundamental change in the structure of the Indian economy transforming the country into a supplier of raw materials and consumer of finished industrial products from Britain. Obviously, the colonial government never made any sincere attempt to estimate India's national and per capita income. Some individual attempts which were made to measure such incomes yielded conflicting and inconsistent results Among the notable estimators - Dadabhai Naoroji, Wam Digby, Findlay Shirras, V.K.R.V. Rao and R.C Desai - it was Rao, whose estimates during the colonial studies did find that the country's growth of aggregate periods were considered very significant. However, most output during the first half of the twentieth century was less than two per cent coupled with a meager half percent growth in per capita output per year.

46. Before British rule, India was well known for which manufacturing industries' products?

- (1) Cotton and Silk or Khadi textiles

- (2) Cotton and Engineering products
- (3) Cotton and Silk textiles, metal and precious stones, etc
- (4) Engineering goods and precious metals

47. What kind of interests was the colonial government concerned with in the economic policy for Indian industries?

- (1) To promote the handicraft industries of India
- (2) Promote and protect small scale industries of India
- (3) Protect and promote the economic interests of Indian industry along with their home country
- (4) Provide protection and promotion of the comic interests of their home country

48. Choose the economists who estimated India's National Income and Per Capita Income

- (1) Dadabhai Naoroji, William Digby, Bernier K RV Rao and R.C. Desai
- (2) Dadabhai Naoroji, William Digby, Findlay Shirras, V KR.V. Rao and R.C. Desai
- (3) Dadabhai Naoroji, Jagdish Bhagwati, V KRV Rao and R.C. Desai
- (4) Dadabhai Naoroji, Findlay Shirras and V KRV Rao

49. What was the country's growth of aggregate real output during the first half of the 20th century?

- (1) The country's growth of aggregate real output outfit was less than two percent coupled with a meager one percent growth in per capita output per year
- (2) The country's growth of aggregate real But was less than two percent coupled with a meager one and a half percent growth in per capita outfit per year.

(3) The country's growth of aggregate real output was less than two and a half percent coupled with a meager half percent growth in per capita output per year.

(4) The country's growth of aggregate real output was less than two percent coupled with a meager half percent growth in per capita output per year

50. According to the passage, which of the following statements was true about Indian industries' products?

(1) Indian products were of inferior quality and cheap in the worldwide market.

(2) Indian products were promoted by the colonial government and competed with other countries' markets also

(3) Indian products enjoyed a worldwide market based on the quality of material used and the high standard of craftsmanship.

(4) Indian products' raw material for primary goods was imported from other countries and it helped to increase exports.
